« Mosaic of neighborhood life »

Adélaïde Dupré de Pomarède

General idea

Stylistic designed silhouettes of people in daily live filled in with a mosaic of pictures.

These are pictures of live in the neighborhood gathered by the locals. It might be silhouettes of a man with a dog, parents with baby carriage, girl with a ballon, children playing with a ball, children biking etc...l

In the background there is a decor made of colored tiles that give an impression of a city landscape.

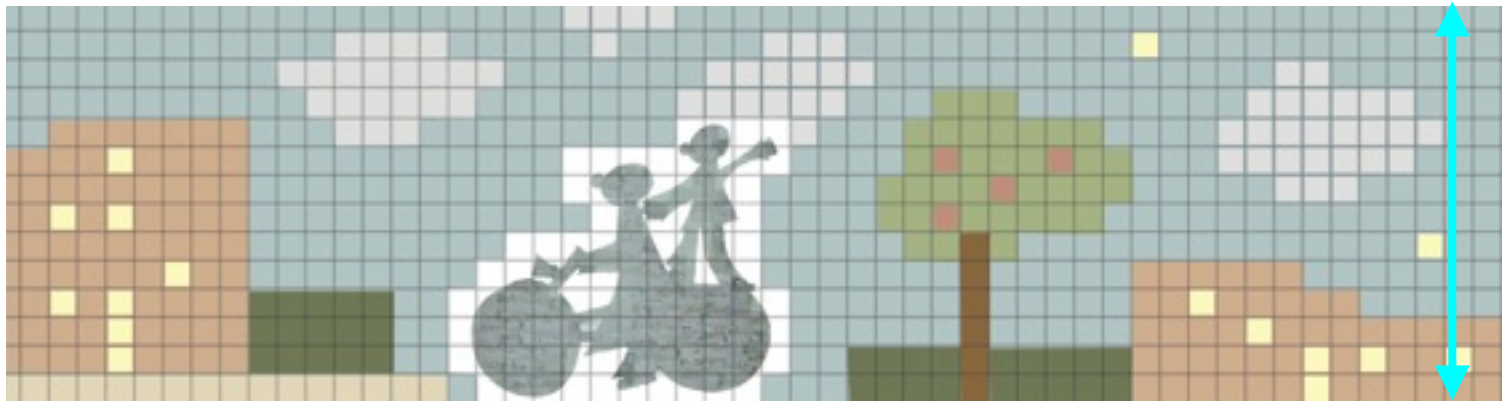

Essence

People are full of stories, ideas and memories. This is symbolized with the mosaic of images that fill the 'bodies' of the silhouettes. These bodies full of live are contrasted with the geometric, cold, sharp edged organized world of the city.

The decor, the frame around this silhouettes is the city, with buildings, trees, sky and stars
